

Weekly FLC Updates
January 7, 2021
Edition 1

- Welcome to the beginning of 2021! We are bringing back several things that you may have missed over the last year. We did decide to change the names but you should find them familiar.
  - Formerly called Friday First Three, we will begin again with this weekly email. Renamed the Heartbeat, you will begin receiving this each week with information that highlights our coming week at FLC.
  - We are also starting back with a monthly newsletter. We decided to rename this, First Out Loud: Our Faith in Action. Our intent is to provide concise messages from select people, committees and groups that will keep you abreast of current topics at FLC. First issue should arrive this week. Follow the link to our webpage to view. First Out Loud
